The U$$A, Inc. Is Being Demolished To Make Way For A.I.-Technocratic Totalitarianism

It's been in the works for 85 years then

Can anyone be surprised, these demons play a very long game

Far longer than any MSM junkie can possibly imagine

More and more writers, analysts and commentators are grokking the Technocracy, Inc. and totalitarian A.I. plans of Donald Trump, Elon Musk and the shadowy power brokers who are behind them.

Look at this map that Technocracy, Inc. published in 1940:

https://bostonraremaps.com/wp-content/uploads/2022/08/BRM4117-Technate-of-America-1940_lowres2-3000×2088.jpg

Note what it includes in the Technate of America: Alaska, Canada, Greenland, the Lower 48 States, Mexico, Central America, all of the Caribbean Islands, the northern tier of South America, as well as Bermuda in the Atlantic Ocean and the Hawaiian, Aleutian and Galapagos Islands in the Pacific Ocean, in addition to the Samoan Islands, Midway Island, and sundry other islands in the northeastern quadrant of the Pacific Ocean.

This plan is obviously still very much in play today with Donald Trump's plans to acquire Greenland, annex Canada, take control of the Panama Canal, and go to war in Mexico against the narco-cartels.

As for the islands in the Pacific Ocean, the U$$A, Inc. already has a military presence in Hawaii, the Aleutians, the Galapagos Islands, Midway Island, as well as multiple military bases in Colombia, and a security agreement with the government of Ecuador.

Add to that the fast track for an overarching A.I. control grid, and the slippery slope to a regional, totalitarian "government" that administers approximately 25% of the northern hemisphere is rapidly being set into place, like it or not.

Catherine Austin Fitts gets it. Her views are very close to mine. See her latest thoughts and analysis here:

For 15 years Patrick Wood has been writing about Technocracy and its dangers. I only recently became aware of his work, but he makes many similar points to mine. I share his concerns. Find his articles on the subject here:

Not to forget Constantin von Hoffmeister, who recently published the following concise analysis in Russia Today:

Here's why Trump really wants to get his hands on Greenland and Canada

A couple more things before I close. Notice that the 1940 Technocracy, Inc. map to which I link above refers to the Technate of America.

That matters, because to achieve the sprawling, huge Technate of America, the so-called countries of Canada, Mexico, the United States, and so forth, have to be swallowed up by the Technate of America and subsumed into it.

This process is already underway. Note that the Trump regime renamed the Gulf of Mexico to be the Gulf of America shortly after taking office. That is completely in line with bringing in the Technate of America.

Logically, the so-called USA needs to be collapsed/ended/terminated/brought to a close prior to the formal roll out of the Technate of America.

Not to worry, in recent days Donald Trump has been talking about eliminating 1,000,000 Federal employees. But just between you and me, I think he is lying. It very well may be that millions of Federal employees and contractors will lose their employment before another half-year goes by. If system collapse truly is the goal, then ALL Federal employees will soon have to be out of work, and the U$$A, Inc. will obviously fall completely apart.

Donald Trump is the repo man, the tow truck driver, the liquidation agent, the bankruptcy guy sent in to tear the whole so-called "country" apart. Trust me on this: he's only getting started, with his Elon Musk sidekick and DOGE.

It all has to come crashing down for the Technate of America to come online, with totalitarian A.I. in the driver's seat, running out of mind-boggling huge, sci-fi caverns without end, deep underground, with thousands upon thousands of acres of supercomputers controlling every single aspect of your life.

That's what's being set up. Poor MAGA-tards. They just do not get it.
